

ORANGE COUNTY FIREFIGHTERS MUSEUM

Fire Safety Educator of the Year Award

Overview - The Orange County Firefighters Museum will present their 1st annual award to a volunteer firefighter in recognition of his or her exceptional efforts in presenting fire prevention and life safety education to the residents of Orange County.

Criteria - The award is presented to an Orange County volunteer firefighter for his or her commitment to the field of fire prevention and life safety education. Criteria for this award include innovative ways of presenting fire prevention and life safety education to the public. Nominees must be a resident of Orange County or a member of an Orange County fire company or department, fire association or chief's association.

NOMINEES MUST BE AVAILABLE ON JUNE 4th TO RECEIVE THIS AWARD.

Nominations - Nominations for the Orange County Fire Safety Educator of the Year Award may be submitted annually by an Orange County volunteer fire company or department, fire association or chiefs association. Nominees will be retained for 3 years and will be eligible for consideration during that 3 year period.

The nominating letter must be submitted on official stationery and signed by the chief, president or secretary of the nominating organization. Letters should describe the methods used to present the fire prevention and life safety education to the public, including: program content, sustainability, targeted groups, success stories, impact on the public, as well as the involvement of all safety, government or civic organization who are involved in the program. Nominations can include any additional letters of recommendation or any other information that makes the educator stand out over others in the field of fire prevention and safety education. Nominations must also include the attached Submission Form.

Nominating letters must be postmarked by April 1, 2011. Letters of support and any other submitted materials accompanying the nomination will become the property of the Orange County Firefighters Museum.

Nominations Availability

The recipient of the award will be notified by April 15, 2011 and the award will be presented at a ceremony to be held at the Orange County Firefighters Museum and Education Center on Saturday, June 4th.
